

"My name is Jim Murphy. I have diabetes and I'd like to share my story with you."

MANAGING DIABETES: The Next Step with an A1C Champion

Has your treating healthcare provider suggested insulin and you're saying "No way!"?

Have you just started insulin and are still not sure it's right for you?

Come to this session and learn about managing diabetes from a Real patient, with Real A1C control, providing Real inspiration.

"Insulin has helped me control my blood sugar... and that's a good thing!"

When: Thursday, 11/6/14 6:00pm

Where: Hy-Vee

Dining Area

8301 North St. Clair Avenue

Kansas City, MO 64151

Call Kodi Watson at 816-505-1000 to register.

SANOFI DIABETES  Going beyond together

Important Safety Information for Insulin

The most common side effect of insulin is low blood sugar (hypoglycemia), which may be serious. Other possible side effects may include injection site reactions, including changes in fat tissue at the injection site, and allergic reactions, including itching and rash. Tell your doctor about other medicines and supplements you are taking because they can change the way insulin works. You must test your blood sugar level while you are using insulin.