Low-Sodium Foods (140 mg or less per serving)

The following list contains foods with fewer-than-140-mg sodium per serving. By no means should this list take the place of medical advice. Rather it was designed as an aid to help you monitor your sodium intake. The serving size for each item is that which is indicated after the company name unless otherwise indicated. Please read food labels to ensure that you are selecting the correct food products designated on this list. For further assistance, contact your local Hy-Vee store dietitian or call 866-865-4878. Happy Shopping!
